Ooohh, yeah
Oh, yeah

Can't believe you are here
It seems just like a dream
But when you look in my eyes
The love becomes so clear to me
It's been so long but now
You're right here, lying by my side
I know how you really feel
Baby, please never let me go

Baby, let's love, love, love again
And again tonight, everything's alright
Then, the two of us can remember sweet, sweet love
Love, love, love, love (Even loving makes me feel this way)
Love, love, love, love (Yes it's me, and I love you so)

Baby, let's love, love, love again and again
Tonight, all the night, make it right
Stay the whole night right through
Right here by my side
Love, love, love again and again
Tonight, make it feel so right
You, only you who knows how
To love me so right

Love again tonight..
