The Prisoner:

At the edge of nowhere
I cannot sense a move in time anymore
This device I'm caught in Holds the venom I'm waiting for I'm all alone
And all is gone I ever lived for What is left are memories
And they'll become a legacy

Oh these prison walls resound the voices in my head
Desperate voices crying my love is dead
Knowing her I realized what I was living for I should have saved you, now I'm broken to the core

(Chorus:)

Darkness and coldness, all passed living her way
Facing all fearless this blindness that led us astray

I saw her wounds, I felt the pain that she was going through
I was right there but there was nothing I could do
They had their games, she died in flames
My world was dying too
I should have saved you, now I'm falling deep into a void!

(Chorus:)

Darkness and coldness, all passed living her way
Facing all fearless this blindness that led us astray

The choir of souls:

She made us be Made us see
A higher empathy
We are one
We are free
The cross is history

Darkness and coldness, all passed living her way
Facing all fearless this blindness that led us astray

Darkness and coldness, all passed living her way
Facing all fearless this blindness that led us astray
