It's easy to look at the sun when it's going down
It's easy to look at the sun when it's coming up
Makes my makes my city orange
Makes my makes my heart breathe
In sight of You
When I'm next to You
But it's easy to lose mind of you when the worries from

In you in you my healer
In you in you I'm sheltered

Til the sun again tomorrow
Moments till the sun has left
Again tomorrow I'll know Your breath
When the sun goes down
There's an image of you

It's easy to look at the sun
when it's going down
It's easy to look at the sun
when it's coming up

Led by led by your light
Led by led by your love

In the A.M. you are here
In the moon-night you are here

With me and I'm assured that
With you with you forever
With You with You

I'm with You eternal
Til the sun again tomorrow
The sun's going down
There's an image of You
The sun's coming up
Rise again tomorrow
Till the sun again tomorrow
There's an image of you...
