After tonight,
who knows where we'll be tomorrow what if we're never here again?

After tonight
This will be a lifetime ago so let's stay up until the sky bleeds red.

And we'll stop stop stop the world from moving Stop stop stop the clocks from turning
Stop this night from fading away

This time is ours
If I could hold this moment in my hands
I'd stop the world from moving
I'd stop the clocks from turning

This time is ours
inside a frozen memory of us
And we are motionless, motionless

Gone like a dream that I have just awoken from Fading away, just out of reach
And we are here, but I already miss you even as you're lying next to me

We're gonna stop stop stop the world from moving
Stop stop stop the clocks from turning
Stop this night from fading away

This time is ours
If I could hold this moment in my hands
I'd stop the world from moving
I'd stop the clocks from turning

This time is ours
inside a frozen memory of us
And we are motionless, motionless x3

We're gonna stop stop stop the world from moving
Stop stop stop the clocks from turning

Stop this night from fading away, fading away

This time is ours
If I could hold this moment in my hands
I'd stop the world from moving
I'd stop the clocks from turning

This time is ours
inside a frozen memory of us
And we are motionless, motionless

This time is ours (x5)
