When I wake up I can't feel all right
When I wake up I'm not right
Cold in my bones and bullshit in my head
Yeah, I'm gonna lose my mind
Looking out of my bedroom, I can see the time flies
Nobody wants to tell me what it means
Please don't look into my eyes
Cause I feel like a target now
But I'm too tough too tough too tough to die

Living waiting for the right time
Looking for the right way
Hypocondriac, Hypocondriac
That's what they say

Looking out of my window, There's another world
Nobody wants to tell me what it means
Please don't look into my brain
Cause I feel like a target now
But I'm too tough too tough too tough to die

I don't wanna let you see my world
I just wanna stay on my own
Hoping, Waiting, Fighting
Oh yeah that's just what I want
I don't wanna let you see my tears
I just wanna stay on my own and I know I'll be all right...
