just bring it back to me and nothing's different my heart is full of you and thats ok theres nothing to escape from just reasons in mid france say your rights I hopel'll see one day you're right to say everything and nothing search for I feel loved just to see your name the world chocolate fields that Carl just gave me you are the sun to me, my light my day they said you can smell the rain back home
you're the one the only one sun for me lady my early mornings after midnights betrade me nothing search for my head is full of you and thats ok theres nothing to escape from just reasons in mid france just say your rights I hope I'll see one day they said you can smell the rain back home

you're the one the only one sun for me lady
my early mornings after midnights betrade me
they said you can smell the rain back home
you're the one the only one sun for me lady
