It's up to you the air
than she reminds the end of days if you come back with alone it's all for you me love to tell when you feel like letting go the things she says, at the break of days makes you feel like mascarpone

I'm trying to say
giving nothing away
I'm trying to say
giving nothing away

It's up to you the air
when you feel like letting go
the things she says, at the break of days
makes you feel like mascarpone

I'm trying to say
giving nothing away
I'm trying to say
giving nothing away
(get up)
I'm trying to say
(get up)
giving nothing away
I'm trying to say
(get up)
giving nothing away
