"Absence Of Mind"

If I let you in, can I make you see
The fear of giving up a little piece of me
There's nowhere to hide
Once you've come inside
Feel invisible today,
Mind's nowhere to play

Take it all away

Brainwashed of yesterday's dreams
Nothing is ever quite as it seems
Pieces that used to fit so well
Have broken edges , it's hard to tell

Unexplained absence of mind
Sterile emotion of another kind
Thoughts all filtered out
What's it all about
Penetration of my mind
No safe place to find

Take it all away

Brainwashed of yesterday's dreams
Nothing, ever quite as it seems
Pieces that used to fit so well
Have broken edges, it's hard to tell

Take it all away,
Bring love to me now
Well I need to feel again
But I'm blinded now
Feel not even plain
