"Before You Drown"

When I caught you by the lake, you said nothing
When I asked you "what's the plan", you said
"something"
If I told you that he took no photographs
Could you agree and let it be before you drown?

You got to leave your token on the ground
Cause what's been done is coming back around

He was stupid, he was mean, well worth dumping
So slip it on and let it steam 'til it starts pumping
You know an oyster has a shiny artifact
So can you grieve and let it be before you drown?

You got to leave your token on the ground
Cause what's been done is coming back around

Will it hurt to drink what you're feeling?
Why let his mistake stop your breathing?
It might hurt for now
But you gotta pull through somehow before you drown

You got to leave your token on the ground
Cause what's been done is coming back around
Hey, what you gonna do with what you found?
Cause what's been done is coming back around
