When your tide isn't turning
Your A.I. isn't learning
When all of your brain cells stop working
And all of your good luck is not returning

Is he better than me?
Better than me, oh yeah
Like you said he would be
Is he better than me? Oh yeah

When we tried to keep it working
You decided it wasn't worth it
Now all of the eyes on your prize belong to jerks and
The latest one you chose has gone and hurt you

Is he better than me?
Better than me, oh yeah
Like you said he would be
Is he better than me? Oh yeah

In trying to prove I'm not your type
You bedded many a fool
You might have left your Mr. Right
But I'm not waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting for you

When you whine "I don't deserve this"
Remember girl who ran when they got nervous

Is he better than me?
Better than me, oh yeah
Like you said he would be
Is he better than me? Oh yeah

Is he better than me?
Better than me
Like you said he would be
Is he better than me? Oh yeah
