Yo and I bring it around again with a fresh flow
Low blow, tippin' ya over like a deck of cards
I'll tell you where you are, stuck at the starting line with Nothing left to say,
Your ends unravel and your tips they start to fray
You think you know me, you're inside of my head
But you ain't understood one single word that I have said
Follow the leader is the name of the game you play
You wanna be takin' it but I'm gonna have my own way

Erase the face of your enemies
The right is mine yeah deny this
Erase the face of your enemies
The right is mine try 'n deny this

Take it down, you've got that look on your face
You think you're up there but you don't even know your place
You think you're something, make me do what you will
But I ain't buyin' you know that I have had my fill
See your body fallin', deeper in a hole
It's all over now you've gotta reach inside your soul
Fightin' to control
Denying what you know
The war inside your brain
Is like a sound insane

Erase the face of your enemies
The right is mine yeah deny this
Erase the face of your enemies
The right is mine try 'n deny this
Erase the face of your enemies
The right is mine yeah deny this
Erase the face of your enemies
The right is mine try 'n deny this

Erase the face of your enemies

The right is mine yeah deny this
Erase the face of your enemies
The right is mine try 'n deny this
Erase the face of your enemies
The right is mine yeah deny this
Erase the face of your enemies
The right is mine try 'n deny this
