This ain't my bed anymore
Gonna rest my back
Against the floor tonight
This ain't my bed anymore
I won't sleep as if at home
I will go on
This ain't my bed anymore
If it ain't your bed as well
My sweetest love

This ain't my home anymore
Gonna beg myself
To pick up things I called my own
This ain't my home anymore
Please just say a word
And I will stay forever
This ain't my home anymore
If it ain't your home as well
My sweetest love
