"Since you are gone, I am a ghost wandering on the iceland"
I haven't met you mother, anyone hello
We haven't come together, anybody hello
I wanna hear you mother, anyone hello
Whatever is the answer, anybody hello, anybody hello
An icy breeze for a whisper, anyone hello
My heart is running colder, anybody hello
Even my tears are dryer, anyone hello
No one to tide me over, anybody hello, anybody hello
Dance angels help me I'm alone in the desert
A solitary cry
Dance angels open up a door to the shelter
A deep and unnerving hole
Dance angels guide my steps away from surrender
An howling burden rise
All the tenderness I had to keep inside
Holding whys
Throughout this polar night, has frozen in my heart
Has frozen in my heart
But the land I'm searching for will be closer
The winter of my soul will be over
Burst into the light
We are home
We are home
We are home
We are home now, in Wonderland
Oh my lovely angel
Tell me now!
I don't care if I leave the real world
We'll be together again in Wonderland
I will give you the love that I gathered
All my days on this barren land
The beauty of life as I dreamt it
Well I can't tell you how much I missed you
Biding my time for our rapture in Wonderland
I will give you the sky and the starlight
I will give you the sun and the moonlight
I will give you the waves and the oceans
Ochre shores and blue islands
And a warmer sand, in Wonderland
I will give you the snow and the mountains

I will give you the jungle and the warmest rains
I will give you the trees and the flowers
I will give you the birds and all of life's other treasures
I will shatter the wall
Between dream and reality
Am I cheatin' if I wanna stay around here
Am I cheatin' if I wanna play around here
Am I cheatin' if I wanna pray around here
Am I cheatin' if I wanna gaze at
All the light of the brightest night of my life
The one night I will meet you in heaven
The one night you'll allay my fears
I will give you the love that I gathered
For the whole of my life on this barren land
We'll be together again
We'll be together again in Wonderland
In Wonderland ...
