You speak in silence harder than steel
Is this the way it's gonna be?
Is your mind made up of exactly how you feel?
Are you looking to make a new deal?
Your friends have taken liberty
Telling me what's been going on

And oh I'm all fired up
taking the last bus home

Old man's been drinking
Mother's in tears
Brother's all fucked up and has been for years
First time I met you, you were cold as a stone
Coming down from the high to escape from your home

And oh I'm all fired up
taking the last bus home

Here you go again
saying you don't need anybody
We're all tired of you sitting still Always looking over your shoulder
We've had our fill of your absentee skill
Is the blood in your veins getting colder?

Rosanna x3

Taking the last bus home x2

Oh I'm all fired up
Taking the last bus home
