There's a world full of promise, right outside come and take a look And the words in the story you can write it's an open book

Tell me now do you ever get the feeling That you've somehow lost the gift that you've been given

Take my hand and let's make this feeling last forever
On this perfect day don't you know you
take my breath away

There's just no way of knowing where we'll be in the days to come Take the chance if it's going live each day like it's just begun

Oh hear me now we'll go down this road together
Oh trust me now
S'all it takes to make it happen

Take my hand and let's make this feeling
last forever
take my breath away
'Cause if we try we can make this feeling
last forever
Trust me now
S'all it takes to make it happen

last forever
On this perfect day don't you know you
take my breath away
last forever
take my breath away

Don't you know you take my breath away
