Here and now by Petra Berger
Feel deep within your sense of being
See your own true self awakening
Be where you are right now, the present moment holds the key
Don't keep the past alive, allow the now to be Eternally...

The time is here and now, the moment sets you free
We step into a timeless state, into eternity
We're here to celebrate, let's make a solemn vow
The time and place is here and now..

See how the light defeats the darkness
Feel it's warming touch and tenderness
Surrender to the now, become aware of who you are Don't wait for more to come, allow the now to be Eternally...

The time is here and now, the moment sets you free
We step into a timeless state, into eternity
We're here to celebrate, let's make a solemn vow
The time and place is here and now..

You, you are the only one who can change your life,
open up your heart...

Oh, oh - (koo)

How do we know.. Live beyond your thought and mind
Where do we go.. Leave your worries far behind
When will it show.. Open up and you will find

Create a prophecy
Make it reality

The time is here and now, the moment sets you free
We step into a timeless state, into eternity
We're here to celebrate, let's make a solemn vow
The time and place is here and now..

The time is here and now, the moment sets you free
We step into a timeless state, into eternity
We're here to celebrate, let's make a solemn vow
The time and place is here and now..

This time's the finest hour
The place to feel the power
The time and place is here and now...
