A shade of pain,
a body ripped apart,
a broken heart, raging like fire in an iron frameâ€¦.

And here you are,
the man who's loved me more,
hurt me more,
when passion outbalanced your shameâ€¦.

How could I've resisted comfort I missed,
a promise of ecstasy made my body dream,
run from agonyâ€¦.
But how I love you,
For what you are, not for what you are not.
In spite of ourselves I can see,
you've painted a portait of loveâ€¦. for meâ€¦.

A shade of pain,
a marriage torn apart,
a broken heart boldly displayed in a wooden frameâ€¦.

And there he was,
This understanding man,
with tender hands,
Respect so much stronger than shameâ€¦.

We thrived on emotion,
taking no notion of feelings except our own.
Sad, but in the end everyone's aloneâ€¦.
But how I love you,
For what you are, not for what you are not.
In spite of ourselves I can see,
You've painted a portait of loveâ€¦. for meâ€¦.

Esta noche m'emborracho, Frida, niÃ±a de mi
corazÃ³n,
Mi arbol de la Esperanza mantente firme!
maÃ±ana serÃ© otro dia,
y veran que tengo razon!

How I love you,

For what you are, not for what you are not.
In spite of ourselves I can see
You've painted a portait of loveâ€¦. for meâ€¦.
