Give me a name give me something, something
It's vertigo and it's all around me
Give me a break, get me out of this place
This vertigo (it's getting to me)
Here on this frosty plain there was ice cold crust in my veins
Yeah, I've been shivering here wish that I could have you near
But it's a long way down, it's a long way down from here
It's a long and lonely way, it's a long long long way down
Show me a way, help me down from this place
It's vertigo (it's getting to me) Oh you're so far below and I'm trapped up here in the snow
I think I'm justified in taking one last little ride
Such a long way down
I stumble, I do. I tumble round, I crumble for you
I tumble down, such a long way down
Give me a name give me something, something
Memory, they're taking from me
Give me a sign give me something, something Gravity, oh won't you help me
Got you - It's true I tumble down
I stumble for you, dissemble down, I crumble for you
I'm falling down
I stumble
For you
But you don't even know
