"Party"

It will be our deepest pleasure to invite you to our ball
We will have cake and treasure -- You simply must come along

To our party, party, party, stay forever, say you will Come be happy if you want to at the party, say you will [only when you want]

The manacle is cut, It stops the swelling, but not much
The sense that they're in control is what I'm dreading
Oh no

It's our party, never leave us, pledge allegiance, say you will
We will love you like no other, stay forever, say you will Speak only when you are spoken to
Listen for the signal,

It's not nice to leave before the party is over,,
You simply must come along:

To the party, party, party, fun forever, say you will Come be happy here forever at the party, say you will
You will do what we tell you
If you want to live
[only when you want]
Speak only when you are spoken to Listen for the signal and begin
Here forever at the party

Here forever at the party, start the party, say you will Stay forever at the party
Listen for the signal
And begin,
