She can see with her hands through the bedroom door
Jasmine tea left to stand on the wooden floor
And the mess on the bed is the mess in my head

I can walk in your mind
I can leap into your mind
I can walk in you mind
I can sleep inside your mind
Anytime

When she's out with her friends
I turn off all the lights
And I watch the motorway shining in the night
You say more when you sleep than when you
You try to speak

I can walk in your mind
I can leap into your mind
I can walk in you mind
I can sleep inside your mind
Anytime

I believe in science but there are things that do not make sense
Why do I keep doing all the things I know make you tense
I believe in science but I can't feel my head
Oh why do I keep doing things that make you tense

I can walk in your mind
I can leap into your mind
I can walk in you mind
I can sleep inside your mind
So here I walk into your mind...
