i always wanted to believe all those promises though i knew they were empty and i always wanted to keep the secrets though i knew they should have been revealed i stood up for you though you were never that around

i saw you off to the journey
yeah yeah yeah
i couldn't come along
no no no
but i wrote you a song
i wrote you a song

i always forgave all those mistakes though i knew you would do them all again and i always apologized for my words though i knew you deserved all of them

no no no
