"Who We Fall For"

As the world turns
As my heart yearns
For a burning sensation

I'd give anything
For no more make believing
Trapped in my imagination

Now I'm getting so close to you
Oh baby it's so hard not to
'Cause

[Chorus]:
We don't choose
Who we fall for
But this full moon
It's time
For you and I

If I wake and
I'm still trapped in Wonderland
At least I had you for one moment

But I will hope to God that
I don't have to sleep again
'Cause reality's better than dreaming

[Chorus]

When the rain falls down
When you get lost in the crowd
When you fear there's no home for you to go
Just look into the sky,
See the moon full in the night
It will remind you, it's time

[Chorus]
