won't you look up at the skyline at the mortar, block, and glass and check out the reflections in my eyes? you see they always used to be there even when this all was grass and I sang and danced about a high-rise and you were laughing at my helmet hat, laughing at my torch

go ahead you can laugh all you want I got my philosophy
[keeps my feet on the ground] and I trust it like the ground that's why my philosophy [my phil]
it keeps me walking when I'm falling down [los-o-phy]

I see that there is evil and I know that there is good and the in-betweens I never understood won't you look at me, I'm crazy, but I get the job done yeah, I'm crazy, but I get the job done and I say:

go ahead you can laugh all you want
but I got my philosophy [keeps my feet on the ground]
and I trust it like the ground
[my phil]
it keeps me walking when I'm falling down [los-o-phy]

I pushed you 'cause I loved you guys I didn't realize you weren't having fun and I dragged you up the stairs and I told you to fly you were flapping your arms you started to cry, you were too high no, too high now you take this all for granted you take the mortar, block, and glass and you forget the speech and move the stone but it's really not that you can't see the forest for the trees you never been out in the woods alone so you can laugh all you want to

but I got my philosophy [keeps my feet on the ground] and I love you, you're my friend but you got no philosophy [my phil]
it keeps me walking when I'm falling down [los-o-phy]

[cap that bitch off, somebody]
[driver]
[screaming]
[where's the party?]
1! 2! 3! 4!
