There are nights where I just can't sleep
Where the night seems to exist around me
Got some memories I shouldn't keep Sprawled out in a mess beside me

There are days where I'm just in a daze
Monotone, with a hint of afraid
There are days that I simply miss
Sleeping off this insomnia shit

'Cause I'm counting my wrongs
Counting my wrongs
Counting my wrongs till the break of dawn

Counting my wrongs
Counting my wrongs
Counting my wrongs and I'm chewing the thorns

Counting my wrongs
Counting my wrongs
Counting my wrongs till the break of dawn

Counting my wrongs
Counting my wrongs
Counting my wrongs and I'm chewing the thorns again

Chewing the thorns again...
