I've seen enough of the world to know
That I'm in danger
I've seen enough of the world to know
Not to talk to strangers

If cancer don't kill ya
A maniac is gonna
If a manic don't
Then world war 3 might start tomorrow

And so you drink too much
Think too much
Work too much
Everything to excess

Prescribed nonsense everywhere you go
Drive safe, eat well, stay under control

Beautiful people on TV make me choke
No one looks like that
Just Barbie dolls on show

And so you drink too much
Think too much
Work too much
