Prairie Dawn: Since "K" is the next letter, Herbert Birdsfoot will now recite his "K" poem. So listen to the words that start with "K-uh".

Herb: I don't want to.

Oscar: Why not Herb?

Herb: Well, because everyone says it's silly.

All of the other Muppets: Oh no!

Grover: Oh, Herb, that's not true.

Herb: Yes, you'll all say it's silly.

Grover: Herb, we will not now.

Herb: You won't say it's silly?

All of the other Muppets: No!

Herb: Oh, OK

There once was a king from Kalamazoo

Who had a kicky kangaroo

Now the kindly kangaroo named Kay

Played a keen kazoo both night and day

'Twas the kind of kazoo that went koo-koo

Koo-Koo Koo-Koo went Kay's kazoo

And when the kindly king of Kalamazoo saw Kay the kangaroo's kazoo

He said right here in Kalamazoo, we'll build a zoo for a kangaroo

And so when you are passing through

Stop by and you can listen to

The Kalamazoo zoo's kangaroo play koo-koo-koo on her kazoo

Big Bird: I hate to say this Herb, but do you know what?

Herb: What?

All of the other Muppets: That's silly!
