cold-sessionroad

as you turn away from me im secretly hoping that you'd come around and break the spell on me it seems like its fading the fire between us has died down and now you left me questioning

chorus:

and i feel so lonely side oh with the pieces of the loving ways, we cried and i feel so empty now you've gone and took away my pride

why can't you reach out for me? you're pulling me under where the darkness blinds the world right out of me i feel like im trembling my knees are shaking cause i know theres something you're not telling me

(chorus)

(instrumental)

(chorus)

i feel so lonely oh,,ooohh i feel so empty oh,ooohh your gone and i cried
