So close
A perfect start
So undeniable
Fallen apart

So right from wrong
So beautiful
Truly defining
So hard to let go

She's always knocking doors into my thoughts

I don't wanna love her
I don't want her here in my life
I don't want her near me
But she's so deep inside
I don't wanna love her , no
I just wanna fly away
But broken wings don't fly

She took a blue sky
Turned it to rain
She took pure freedom
Transformed it to pain

I don't want her prison
I don't want her poison
I don't want her games, her cage, her ball and chain

She's always knocking doors into my thoughts

I don't wanna love her
I don't want her here in my life
I don't want her near me
But she's so deep inside
I don't wanna love her , no
I just wanna fly away
But broken wings don't fly

Bonds unbroken
Are leading me astray

Words unspoken
Are driving me insane

My mind is prisoner
To a heart out of control
I don't ...

I don't wanna love her
I don't want her here in my life
I don't want her near me
But she's so deep inside
I don't want her near me
I just wanna fly away
But broken wings don't..
Broken wings don't fly

Broken

I don't wanna love her
No broken wings don't fly
