There's nothing good about goodbye
There must be something we can try
To keep the love we have alive
And stay together (and stay together baby)

Yeah oh yeah

Something happened I can't explain
Something about you is not the same
I can read between the lines
I can see all the warning signs

And you say (and you say) that you're giving me up
And you say (and you say) that you've had enough
And you say (and you say) there's no love left inside
Baby can't you give us one more try

There's nothing good about goodbye
There must be something we can try
To keep the love we have alive
And stay together (and stay together baby)

Yeah oh yeah

Who was right baby who's to blame
Is that worth throwing us away
Are we broken beyond repair
Or is there still part of you that cares

Can we try (can we try) to make amends
Can we try (can we try) to find love once again
You and I (you and I) had it all before
We can have it all again and more

There's nothing good about goodbye
There must be something we can try
To keep the love we have alive
And stay together (and stay together baby)

There's nothing good about goodbye
It breaks your heart it makes you cry

I just want you in my life
Until forever (until forever baby)

There's nothing good baby about goodbye
What's so wrong that it can't be right
There's nothing good about goodbye
Won't you give us one more try

There's nothing
There's nothing
There's nothing good about goodbye
