Lyrics by Phoenix Stone

Music by Phoenix Stone, A. Bagge, A. Birgisson

You called last night
On the telephone
Talking of romance
You found somebody new

And you asked me
Baby, how you been
Said you miss me now
Do I ever miss you

When you left me I didn't know what to do
I found someone new

She can make the sun shine at night
She can make the darkness turn to light
But someone my heart just can't be fooled
There's one thing she can't do
She can't be you

So there you are
Baby here I am
Living separates lives
You said it was for the best

And you got him
Baby I've got her
Yeah we have it all
Are we happy yet

I've found someone who loves me just for me
I should be happy

She can make the sun shine at night
She can make the darkness turn to light
Someone my heart just can't be fooled
There's one thing she can't do
She can't be you
