Higher, Higher, Higher
Higher, Higher, Higher

Sometimes I think about the way I am
This life I'm living time I'm giving is it worth it?
Well truth is I've been keeping my distance, o yea cus I don't want myself to get burned
But I realize I gotta keep moving, o yea
So I'll take my chances its my turn

So I'll go
No, I refuse to walk away I'll go
Whoa, the distance noones gone before I'll go
No, I won't stop I'm pressing on I'll go
Whoa, I believe that there's a higher meaning

Higher, Higher, Higher
Higher, Higher, Higher

Sometimes It feels like i'm not moving fast enough
Like I don't try they pass me by and I've gone nowhere Well truth is once I turn my head back, o yea and I see how far that I have come I realize that I have grown up so fast and I love the person I've become

So I'll go
No, I refuse to walk away I'll go
Whoa, the distance noones gone before I'll go
No, I won't stop I'm pressing on I'll go
