I think your love is just a trick,
you broke my heart just for a kick.
you'd never leave is what you said,
but your love left me in the hospital bed.

Just like a heart attack,
you make a good heart crack.

No more meaning left inside,
nothing that they can't prescribe.
all the doctors know your name,
my EKG looks like a video game.

Just like a heart attack,
you make a good heart crack.

Oh no the victim has been shown,
I can't believe I should have known.
it's way too late I can't go back,
the ___ it's coming back, it's back, it's back.

I think your love is just a stance,
you left me pulling up my pants.
I heard your name I skipped a beat,
I didn't think that it would stop completely.

Heart attack, you make a good heart crack.

Oh no the victim has been shown,
I can't believe I should have known.
it's way too late I can't go back,
the ___ it's coming back, it's back, it's back.

Another doctor diagnosed,
another lover's case is closed.
I never wanted a tug of war,
another heart let fall apart.

Just like a heart attack,
you make a good heart crack.
just like a heart attack.

I'll be waiting here when you come back.
