I met you on a tuesday
you'd only just been released.
you told me about your ex-boyfriend who was recently deceased
But you remind me of mother, and I remind you of dad then we was kissinT in the church parking lot you know, such a sick thing we had,
you tore it in two, whyd you take my heart out tear it in 2
I knew that you had your problems.
I knew that you had your pills.
they diagnosed you unstable, depressed and mentally ill.
but when you stopped taking phone calls and you didn't answer your door I Peaked in through your window and you were laying dead on the floor.
you tore it in two, whyd you take my heart out tear it in 2
I guess today is just an Empty space
I cant seem to forget your face Now all you lefts an after taste, I cant get outta my mouth
you tore it in two, whyd you take my heart out tear it in 2
shouldn't you just cut it out.
whyd you take my heart out tear it in 2
