(No se)

I don't understand why no one's saying what they mean (no se)

Addressing all the problems, never solving what's between (no se)

Them and everything that they've been wishing they could see (no se)

Voices all around us keep us slave to company

No se (x5)

I don't understand why no one's looking for the truth
(no se)

Staring at a screen like what it gives us is foolproof (no se)

Everybody want to feel like they been understood (no se)

We don't want to understand ourselves the way we should

No se (x8)
