You've been all over this place, and you should know that there's no other way around So check yourself before you wreck yourself, cos you're clearly holding back New low couldn't be more boring, come see for yourself

But you're a quiet boy, not that good at all So she's too busy sleeping.
The one who won just dropped his gun, so fly on this one

Embrey, You're such a thrilling bad example.
It's time to put the pressure on you, it's time to put the pressure on!
Stay soft! Not that swift annoying style of yours.
Someone got the pressure on you, all in all a session precious

It's all..back again for a down again with a disappointing score
The pressure is on but so much shorter, attractions they dissolve in water.
Embrey, You're such a thrilling bad example.
Tension's dropping, you're sleep talking, "It's always like this"

But you're a quiet boy, that she's all over You're way too busy waiting. On and on it's anyone from now on
So check yourself before you wreck yourself...now
So check yourself before you wreck yourself...now

The lights dim down the edge of town, the street where they both live
He hopes that she already knows that she is missing out Wait this one, the light's back on, so he tripped while she was gone,
Not a sound from anyone, then broke his neck, all done!

Such a quiet boy, can't say anything It's getting hard to see now.
Leave this town to open ground. While she's all alone.

Embrey, You're such a thrilling bad example.
Its time to put the pressure on you, its time to put the pressure on!
Stay soft! Not that swift annoying style of yours.
Someone got the pressure on you, all in all
