(However I do believe, that most anything can happen to a man, in his own mind)

Coming down, but I am Catching up slowly. Can't we just forget it?
I'm breaking all your windows just to make you notice.
my lips are dry in silence.
Feels much better when the worst I got to say was love,

yeah. but it's only in your head. Half awake & counting!
just Half awake & counting!
yeah, said it's only in your head, I'm Half Awake & Counting! just half awake and..

The kind that's hopeless. But I am learning as I grow.
Why won't we just forget it?
Better make this right or I will feel the same tomorrow, Crossed the line tonight, the pills won't do it for me this time

yeah. but it's only in your head. Half awake & counting!
just Half awake & counting!
yeah, said it's only in your head, I'm half Awake &
Counting, just half awake & counting!

(We try to see every side, but the more we see the less sure we are.)

yeah. but it's only in your head. Half awake & counting!
just Half awake & counting!
yeah, said it's only in your head, I'm half Awake &
Counting, just half awake & counting!
