Oh you cry cry cry on the telephone
Cause you die die die, cause you're all alone
It's so hard for me
And your heart bang bang to the rhythm of love
It's a wild wild thing that you're dreaming off
It's so hard to see

It's so hard, so hard to believing in love
It's crazy like you, crazy like me
Crazy like eternity
Crazy like you, crazy like me
Crazy like a fantasy
Crazy like you and me together
Crazy like you and me tonight
It's crazy like you, it's crazy like me
You are always in my dreams

Oh it's one two three
That you're hurting me
Like the ABC, oh you're killing me
It's so hard to see
And you knock knock knock on my lonely door
But I love you more than just before
It's so hard to see

It's so hard, so hard to believing in love
It's crazy like you, crazy like me
Crazy like eternity
Crazy like you, crazy like me
Crazy like a fantasy
Crazy like you and me together
Crazy like you and me tonight
It's crazy like you, it's crazy like me
You are always in my dreams
