I cannot hiding my fears, oh
I cannot hiding my tears
There's only this love to share
I hope you playing just fair
There is something in the air
But I feel you just don't care
Cause we're too lost in, too lost in,
Too lost in love

Don't cry these tears
Cause you are not alone
Don't cry these tears
Cause my heart's your home
Don't cry these tears
Please pick up the phone
Don't cry these tears
Cause you are not alone
You are not alone

You'll bring me the sun again
And now we are more than good friends
I only have eyes just for you
I hope all my dreams become true
I've been lonely for too long
But your love will make me strong
Cause we're too lost in, too lost in,
Too lost in love

Don't cry these tears
Cause you are not alone
Don't cry these tears
Cause my heart's your home
Don't cry these tears
Please pick up the phone
Don't cry these tears
Cause you are not alone
You are not alone
[repeat]
