You put me up and saw good things
And took a leap on what you felt could be
A reason to get dressed up for Someone you thought could care the same and more
But I learned this way
If you were right here next to me
I know you had to wait
If you were right here next to me

On and on, carry on
Only right now, I'm trying not to hurt you
Cause I made it wrong and held too long
For only right now, I wish I never hurt you

It's hard to keep stability
You know it never came easy for me
The things you would say, they held no weight
I took them with a mountain that saw not a grin
But I learned this way
If you were right here next to me
I know you had to wait
If you were right here

On and on, carry on
Only right now, I'm trying not to hurt you
Cause I made it wrong and held too long
For only right now, I wish I never hurt you
On and on, carry on
(On and on, carry on)
Only right now, I'm trying not to hurt you
Cause I made it wrong and held too long
(Made it wrong, held too long)
For only right now, I wish I never hurt you

And I should have seen we were even
And I could have told you yes
And I could have just grown up
But I can't
I always bring you down
And I would have let you show me
How to be and to be kind

But I can't go back, only forward
Can I have one final try?

On and on, carry on
Only right now, I'm trying not to hurt you
I made it wrong and held too long
For only right now, I wish I never hurt you
Only right now, I'm trying not to hurt you
For only right now, I wish I never hurt you
On and on, carry on
(On and on, carry on)
Only right now, I'm trying not to hurt you
Cause I made it wrong and held too long
(Made it wrong, held too long)
For only right now, I wish I never hurt you
If you were right here next to me
