Here I am
So lost in time
Like a flower
To be infolded
I realise what's left behind
Like a story but untolded
Eleven days that I have counted
Who knows how more to count
I thought that you and I were bounded
Like the Earth and Moon and Sun

I try
Even though that we're apart
I cry
My heart is aching
I try
Even though that we're apart
I cry
My heart is aching
I try
Even though that we're apart
I cry
My heart is aching
I try
To move on although it's hard
I cry
My love is taken
