Once again, alone in the dark
Where I can only think of you
In the sky I see a star, it sparks
Could this star be you?

Would give my own to get to you
If there's a chance, what can I do?
You can make it, you can make it happen

Would give my own to get to you
If there's a chance, what can I do?
You can make it, you can make it happen

Would give my own to get to you
If there's a chance, what can I do?
You can make it, you can make it happen

Would give my own to get to you
If there's a chance, what can I do?
You can make it, you can make it happen

Could this star be you?

Once again, alone in the dark
Where I can only think of you
In the sky I see a star, it sparks
Could this star be you?

Would give my own to get to you
If there's a chance, what can I do?
You can make it, you can make it happen

Would give my own to get to you
If there's a chance, what can I do?
You can make it, you can make it happen

Would give my own to get to you
If there's a chance, what can I do?
You can make it, you can make it happen

Would give my own to get to you

If there's a chance, what can I do?
You can make it, you can make it happen
