[V1]

Late nights, bright lights, limelight livin you by my side rockin dark tights killin red carpet chillin baby this is what we does I can give you this in exchange for your love.
Uh, and love is what you gave me, underneath the sheets every night crazy baby, you had me thinkin you the one but all you really wanted was my money, life, fame, and fun
so cold, you grabbed my heart ripped it right out eyes wide open when you kissed my mouth I shoulda known by that look on your face you didn't feel nothin no this love was all fake hey, and the stupid about it is after all this my love for you still exists, damn, I would give anything to have you babe you gotta know that i'd,

[Carolina sings Bruno Mars - Grenade HOOK]

[V2]

I would catch a grenade, take a bullet to the brain, endure deathly pain just for you to be my main cuz these feelings right now i have hurt so deep I can't get it out my head you won't come back to me so i seep down low, lower than I ever been friends knockin at my doot but I don't let em in I'm better than this, but I can't get over it up in my house no food, don't even order in just got my bottle filled up, lord, I'm sorry for my sin but i think I'm givin in this might just be the end

[Carolina sings Bruno Mars - Liquor Store Blues HOOK]

Acoustic Guitar Solo

[Carolina sings Bruno Mars - The Lazy Song HOOK]

[V3]

Today I don't feel like gettin outta bed cuz I can't get this image of you up up out my head so instead i lay numb feelin so hungover baby won't you please come over and make this all go away remember the times you and i were so great? i gave you everything and you lit up my day and how you lit up my night it was right, right? damn, well apparently not though cuz all you really wanted was to buy til the shop closed the new designer brand, to be able to cop those get you feelin brand new, got me feelin damn blue girl i can't stand you and now I am movin on this is past due, this is why I wrote this song you may have stole my heart, i maybe made your dreams come true but listen up love, F&#^ YOU! (it's all cool)
