Puff, blow blow

Breath it in s-

P-puff blow

B-br-breath it in slow

Puff blow blow

Breath it in slow

P-puff blow blow blow

P-p-puff blow, blow

B-b-breath it in slow

Let it hit you down deep cause it feels so

Good

Cut it up, pack it tight right

Light it up

Keep it goin' all night like

This

So you can't forget all about your past

Present future nothing matters when I got this bag

See, my wife my kids my life is all goin'

I raised them up

They're doin' well no harm in me blowin'

No, yes well still I'll always be

That father figure no chemicle can blockade me

See, I'm coach and president of his little league

And check his report card no not even one B

Yeah work sucks

My job stresses and hassles me

But I provide for my son to be a student athlete

Yeah, and man has he become one of those

3 sports and straight A's on the honor roll

His older sister too, she's doin quite nice

Younger brother follows their footsteps left in the right

My family yeah, it mean's so much to me

I'd give my life to see them live happily

But there's something goin' on that I know is wrong

Late nights holdin' this pipe goin' on too long

My wife's alone inside

I'm feeling cold inside

Keep inhaling this in

What's goin on with my life

Feeling down I just need to get higher
Life ain't right until I spark my lighter
I'm going south but baby I'm a fighter
I can stop this ish whenever I desire
Right, cause my life is set in stone
I got it all laid out with a supportive home
But it feels like I just might lose it all
I gotta cut this stuff out before too far I fall
(Before I fall)
Before I fall
Before I fall

Alright I'm back yeah I know that I can do this Down deep I've got the best heart watch as I pursue this
I am about to prove it
How I can quit, get sober quick
Just when I got your hopes up it ain't over with I'm back
Into that same cycle
I'll stop later and just use a little meanwhile
Life is full of tribulations and this is a trial
I'll win
But I'm addicted and in denial
But yo, this is just a small minor flaw
Look I can coach football like Fred Biletnikoff
Yeah I'm a born leader
These folks look up to me
There's no reason that they need to know what's underneath
That sits, that works I'll just ride it out
Year after year same thing
And you ain't finding out
I still love my wife
I still love my kids
Just as much even more than I always did
That's true
This man, he never stops neither
Lovin and drugin but the abuse it got deeper
He started drifting from the best dad that he used to be
Providing his wife with the dream that she used to see
And now, though he wanted to provide love
He can't cause his body's someplace high above
He's gone, gone no love to give
If only he'd a never taken that first hit
Puff blow
Breath it in slow
P-puff blow
Breath it in slow
Puff blow blow
Breath it in slow

Pu-pu-puff blow blow

Feeling down I just need to get higher
Life ain't right until I spark my lighter
I'm going south but baby I'm a fighter
I can stop this ish whenever I desire
Right, cause my life is set in stone
I got it all laid out with a supportive home
But it feels like I just might lose it all
I gotta cut this stuff out before too far I fall
(Before I fall)
Before I fall
Before I fall
