[V1]

Have you been on stages? up in front of crowds that yell your name and the same words that are from your lyric pages, they just, go so insane, wait for it, when the beat drops homie it's amazing like criss angel I'm ochocinco puttin on shows flow's sweet like mango these girls wanna tango, I get my usher on upper echelon, king swag like my name's lebron he's bad, but he's feelin so splendid everytime I'm out, screw a budget just spend it like I'm at the top and can't nobody contend it I'm livin life up and I don't ever wanna end it yeah, I ain't payin no mind to those that try and slow my grind I know what I want, where I'm at, and where i'm bout to go so don't slow my roll, I'm up in my zone

[HOOK]

Now everybody wanna try and tell me how to live But I ain't listenin, no, I just wanna do it big.
That solo livin right? Partyin every night.
All around the world, you can catch me with your girl Like this, this we livin it up (x4)

[V2]

Adrenaline be fillin him when he's up in his element that beat bass clap, every note you know I'm killin them just how i do, all my joints self-produced I perform on the news while y'all lames hit snooze I pursue, my own path, and when my sights are set, I'm on my horse, sit back and watch me blow past anybody in my way or out in front of me I'm what they wanna see, hot, hundred degrees.
I may not be the main topic of discussion, but it's all good cuz these girls stay crushin and I keep bringin mad tunes to make em move when we come through, somethin like a wreckin crew party hard, party good, all the way in new york to hollywood live free baby just like we should and I don't care what they say, I feel great, Imma do this everyday

[BRIDGE]

Now let me see y'all put yo hands up, hands up (x2) If you just feelin like this life in which you live is too much you gotta give in a little and do it big let it all go, feel dope, walk down that road that you want most do what you gotta do to get by to make it but don't forget that life is yours so celebrate it like,
