Ferris wheel by PJDS
She wears a different smile
She is difficult
Underneath her nails the stuff
That cankers her skull

She's not available
But she's a lot of sound
I listen to the city
When she is not around

Up here on this ferris wheel
All must be revealed
Up here on this ferris wheel
Nothing to be concealed

She swallows me whole
And leaver me famished
She downs me just like her espressos
Laced with acid

She is my curse my fate
She is my permanent joy
She is my nurse she's sick
And I'm het little boy

Up here on this ferris wheel
All must be revealed
Take off your clothes and let me in
Up here on this ferris wheel
Nothing to be concealed
Loud flesh and bone and chrome and steel
Up here on this ferris wheel
We strike a better deal
You show it all and I sit still
