I'll sister by PJDS
Baby says I'm a mess
Thinks she has seen it all
But she's small and I'm a wall
To her eyes I'm all she buys

I'm her prize when she wins
But soon she don't win
She has me pinned to her skin

I'll sister
You cut me deep
Sick mistress
You took my sleep

Baby stares at this affair
And goes upstairs to breathe some air
And leaves me there in despair
She's a pearl that got hurled
Into this world filled with swine
She's not mine but we're fine

Baby makes no mistakes
Until she breaks my window

Here I go
Fucking solo
Like I was born
All forlorn bloody adorned
Like I will die
Like dogs can die
The eternal hy

I'll sister
You cut me deep
Sick mistress
You took my sleep
