What are you saying?
Did you forget yourself?
You kill the sickness
Secure within your health

Don't make a sound I could break
That stupid silence degrades
I ask of you, "Could you wait?"
What's the use? You're wasting me away
Wasting me away

To me it's cold

You can't know
What it's like to be alone
And all there is that you know
I'll be the one left here when you go

Slap in the face
Slap in the face
Slap in the face
Slap in the face
Slap in the face

Keep me in mind
You're bleeding my poor head
I watched you die
I watched you praying

Keep me alive
Don't let me die here
I ask of you, "Could you wait?"
What's the use? You're wasting away

To me it's cold

You can't know
What it's like to be alone
And all there is that you know

You can't know
What it's like to be alone
And all there is that you know

Slap in the face
Slap in the face
Slap in the face
Slap in the face
Slap in the face
