Losing You

Wake up to another day
Seems like today was yesterday
Lookin at you makes me
Feel like I have to scream
To be heard again

I crumble before ya
Just to get the same reaction once again
How did it get to be
The reasons in front of me
You can't stand the sight of me
Why don't you go

The thought of losing you is here again
I'll never be the same again

I push the red light
Speed through the warning
Left me with nothing but the same again
I heard the grass was greener on the other side
So you lied
I hope I see you
Will you remember
The shit you put me through
What can I do for you
All the bleeding starts the healin'
How did it get to be
The reasons in front of me
You can't stand the sight of me look at me

The thought of losing you is here again
I'll never be the same this is the end
So long, so long, so long
The thought of losing you is here again
I'll never be the same again

I stand washin off my hands again
The end the end of our life as we knew it

The thought of losing you is here again
I'll never be the same this is the end
So long, so long, so long
The thought of losing you is here again
I'll never be the same this is the end
So long, so long, so long
It went on and on and on
Will my life still have a meaning
How could you throw it all away again
I should have known this time would come
I should have known this time would come
Now I'll never be the same
