The stare that cuts through me burning a hole in me
Giving the answers I've been looking for Your new found love for kicking me when I'm down
Has given me the hate to finally let you know

I don't believe anything you ever told me, you lost your soul
Take another chance, it's the last time you'll fuck me

Strong arm broken, broken
There will be no words spoken, speaking nothing
Strong arm broken, strong arm broken
Strong arm broken

You sold out instantly, killing my sympathy
Biting the hand that fed the dog so long
That black heart hiding behind your hollow eyes
Will never save you from the place you're headed for

I can't believe that I ever let you hurt me, you lost control
Time to say goodbye, it's the last time you'll fuck me

Strong arm broken, broken
There will be no words spoken, speaking nothing
Strong arm broken, strong arm broken
Strong arm broken

Strong arm broken, broken
There will be no words spoken, speaking nothing
Strong arm broken, strong arm broken
Strong arm broken

Strong arm broken, strong arm broken
