Wake up
Follow the ringing in my ears
Hold on
How does a day turn into years?
I never thought it'd be so long my journey down a one way road
I never thought I'd leave behind the part of me that used to dream
I can start again

Right now
I'm dying inside
And I don't ever wanna feel it again
It's time
To make it alright
Because I wanna know how it coulda been
And I'm sorry that it's like this Cuz it's such a mess I know
And I'm sorry that it's like this

New day
Moving beyond what broke me down
Letting go
I'm giving it all up to be found
I never thought a second chance would ever let this day begin
I never thought I'd be the one to show the world You've overcome
I can start again

I wanna stand my ground in every circumstance
I won't let 'em keep me down
You've given me a second chance
Given me a second chance
